Alan,

We will agree to a discovery extension on this matter.

Also, I have spoken to my client and have drafted a 2nd Consent Temporary Order that incorporates both the 10/16 and 10/23 Orders and allows your client his 120-days (2/14/2026) to attempt to refinance the home. But I have added some conditions to that, which are outlined in our proposal. Please let me know if your client agrees.

V/R,

Jenn McGhan

Jennifer-
We need an extension on responding to your discovery request. I propose an extension until November 21, 2025. Please let me know if you will agree.
Also, please let me know if your client will agree to a modification of the Emergency Order allowing my client 120 days to get the marital residence refinanced prior to putting the home on the market for sale.
Thank you,
Alan

Mr. Welch, I hope you're enjoying this lovely Friday morning.

Please consider this a high-priority strategic briefing synthesizing the attached Joint Checking Account Activity Report (July 2 – Sept 16, 2025) and the Detailed Litigation Timeline.

The core argument is that the Wife created the mortgage delinquency she then used as the false predicate to justify the illegal seizure of my separate property (TSP) in the October 23rd Emergency Order. Her entire strategy, from financial depletion to the scheduling of the emergency hearing, was a premeditated legal and financial ambush.

I. The Premeditated Financial Sabotage (July 2 - Sept 16, 2025)

The financial record proves the delinquency was caused by the Wife's deliberate withdrawal of support and hoarding of her own income, right as my employment was concluding.

Financial Metric (Joint Account)	Amount	Legal Interpretation of Intent
My Total Contribution (Inflow)	$12,943.68	I was the sole effective funder (97% of deposits) of the marital estate during the final 2.5 months.
Wife's Total Contribution (Inflow)	$320.00	Proves deliberate financial withholding while gainfully employed and actively planning her exit.
Wife's Personal Outflows/Transfers	$3,105.11	Funds were intentionally diverted to cover her personal spending and transfers to her own accounts, depleting the marital pool.

- The Crucial Timeline: She allowed the mortgage to become two months delinquent after the joint funds were depleted, and then waited until September 16th—the final day of this report and two weeks before my final paycheck ended on September 30th—to serve me with the Complaint for Divorce.
- Active Obstruction: When I attempted to initiate the TSP hardship withdrawal in Late August to cure the impending mortgage delinquency, the Wife blocked this action. This detail proves her knowledge and active participation in creating the crisis.

II. The Procedural Ambush and Seizure

The October 23rd Emergency Order and the associated punitive fee award ($2,202.00) are based on the demonstrably false court finding that "The Husband has refused to take the steps necessary to cash out his Thrift Savings Plan..."

1. Exploitation of Income Gap: She allowed the mortgage to enter foreclosure range, knowing that by Early October, my final paychecks were legally required to fund my defense retainer, making it impossible for me to unilaterally cure the debt she created.

2. ADA Retaliation: After my counsel was terminated on October 19th, I filed an ADA request and a Motion for Time on October 20th to secure new, competent counsel. Opposing Counsel (McGhan) retaliated by unilaterally scheduling the emergency hearing just two hours later for October 23rd, denying me due process and exploiting my documented Autism and ADHD in open court to solidify the false "refusal" narrative.
3. Illegal Seizure: The resulting Order illegally seized my pre-marital, separate property TSP under the pretense of curing a delinquency that was deliberately manufactured by the opposing party.

III. The Threat of the Second CTO

McGhan's proposed Second CTO (dated 10/30/25) is a transparent attempt to clean up her firm's legal exposure by coercing me into legally validating her entire fraudulent scheme.

- Paragraph 13: Explicitly demands that the flawed and procedurally illegal October 23rd Order "shall remain in full force and effect." This clause legally binds me to the false narrative of "refusal."
- Paragraph 14: Enforces the retaliatory $2,202.00 fee award—a direct sanction for the "refusal" that the attached financial documents prove is a lie.

I look forward to discussing how we aggressively challenge this corruption of justice.

Thank you,
Will Johnson

Mr. Welch,

This update incorporates additional information regarding asset concealment and my wife's post-filing conduct. Every action she has taken, from manufacturing the mortgage crisis to securing a new residence, is evidence of her premeditated legal and financial ambush.

IV. Marital Asset Concealment: The Hair Business

My wife's business is a 100% marital asset subject to valuation and tracing, and the financial records confirm she is using it to conceal income.

Evidence of Marital Asset (from 2024-2025 Records)	Legal Argument for Counsel
Established Revenue & Investment: Business had total deposits of $15,577.39 in 2024.	The business is a going concern built on marital investment and must be formally valued and equitably distributed.

Evidence of Marital Asset (from 2024-2025 Records)	Legal Argument for Counsel
Financial Concealment: She only contributed $320 to the joint account during the crisis period despite a clear, active income stream from her business.	This confirms she is hoarding and diverting business income to undisclosed personal accounts, directly contributing to the marital debt and constituting financial misconduct.

V. New Issues: Post-Separation Conduct & Financial Subterfuge

Her actions after she filed for divorce must be presented as evidence of her ongoing bad faith and lack of credibility.

A. Unilateral Abandonment of Marital Residence

My wife filed the Complaint for Dicorce on September 10th. I was served on September 16th. A few weeks later (early October), she secured and moved into a new apartment, claiming we "couldn't live together."

- Argument: This was a unilateral decision to abandon the marital residence and establish a separate household. This is a post-separation expense she voluntarily incurred and should be solely responsible for.
- Contradiction: Her quick ability to secure a new lease, utility connections, and move-in funds completely contradicts the narrative of financial destitution she used to justify the October 23rd Emergency Order. She clearly had access to significant, undisclosed funds.

B. Concealment of New Support (The "Caring Dad" Factor)

I believe her father is funding her new apartment and expenses.

- Action Point: Discovery into the source of funds for her new residence. While gifts from a parent are generally not income, they are crucial for two reasons:
    1. Rebutting Financial Need: Any regular or substantial support from her father proves she does not have the urgent financial need that was asserted as the basis for the Emergency Order and subsequent punitive fee award. It negates her claims of being in financial peril.
    2. Preventing Recharacterization: We must ensure any funds received from her father are formally documented as gifts and cannot later be recharacterized as loans to be repaid from the marital estate.

V. Objections to Temporary Provisions (Insurance & Cell Phone)

The proposed temporary provisions are boilerplate and fail to address my wife’s bad faith post-filing actions.

Provision in Proposed Order	Fact of Bad Faith/New Liability	Action Point for Counsel
Car Insurance: "Parties will both pay our own car insurance."	The Wife got into a car accident on my policy shortly after the October 16th hearing.	My wife must be made solely responsible for the full cost of any increased premiums or surcharges

		on my policy stemming from her post-separation accident.
Cell Phone: Order does not address the Wife's communications/expenses.	My wife already had a secret, undisclosed cell phone prior to the October 16th hearing.	This is evidence of pre-complaint planning and financial concealment. We need a specific, immediate order compelling the disclosure of all records for that secret line.

Again, I look forward to our meeting on Wednesday.
